

Tea: Trivia I

1. What famous clipper ship from the 20th century cut sailing time from Europe to China at the height of the tea trade?
2. What New York man first began selling teabags in 1908?
3. What man began mass producing tea in 1890 after he bought tea plantations in Sri Lanka?
4. In 1739, what company imported over half a million pieces of porcelain, such as the teapot shown in the First Global Era, in order to accommodate the widely adopted custom of drinking afternoon tea in Europe?
5. The tree or shrub that is used to make originated in what Chinese province?
6. Tea cultivation began to spread during which Medieval Chinese dynasty?
7. Tea spread to where during the Song Dynasty in the Medieval Era?